Viernes Santo

No celebramos, por lo tanto, sólo el aspecto negativo de la muerte del Señor, sino también su carácter victorioso. Por eso las últimas oraciones hablan de «la gloriosa muerte y resurrección de Cristo». Y una de las antífonas dice: «Del árbol de la cruz ha venido la alegría al mundo entero». La muerte de Cristo no es un fracaso, sino un triunfo, pues ha vencido el amor. Y ha permitido la resurrección. Nos recuerda la Carta circular que el Viernes de la Pasión del Señor es un día de penitencia obligatorio para toda la Iglesia por medio de la abstinencia y el ayuno (60), y que en este día está prohibida otra celebración que no sea esta, a excepción del sacramento de la reconciliación y penitencia, y la Unción de los enfermos. En caso de exequias, será sin misa. La liturgia se celebra en torno a las tres de la tarde, y antes de las nueve de la noche.

Domingo de Ramos

Durante la celebración de la liturgia de este Domingo de Ramos, todos nosotros hemos oído las voces que nos llegan a través de los siglos y las generaciones: «¡Hosanna al Hijo de David! ¡Bendito el que viene en el nombre del Señor!» (Mc 11, 9-10). Hemos oído estas voces y las hemos repetido confesando nuestra fe en el Mesías, el Ungido de Dios.

Pero he aquí que de la misma parte del mundo, de la misma ciudad, ante la perspectiva de la Semana Santa nos llegan otras voces y otros gritos que contienen en sí la condena a muerte: «¡Crucifícalo, crucifícalo!» (Jn 19, 6).

Por tanto hoy, mientras en la ora profesamos como siempre que el Verbo se hizo carne y vino a habitar entre nosotros (cf. Jn 1, 14), miramos con grandísimo amor al mismo Verbo que está ante nosotros cual «varón de dolores, conocedor de todos los quebrantos, ante quien se vuelve el rostro» (Is 53, 3). JPII

“Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed”

Today, “is the day the LORD has made”: this is the expression of Psalm 118, 24 that we shall be singing throughout Easter time and fills out the celebration of our Christian faith. The Father has resurrected Jesus Christ, His beloved Son, in whom He delights, because He has loved to the point of giving his life for all of us.

Let us live this Easter with plenty of joy. Christ has risen: so let us celebrate it full of joy and love. Death, sin and sadness, have today been defeated by Jesus Christ... and He has opened the doors to a new life, the real life, the life we owe to the grace of the Holy Spirit. Nobody should be sad. Christ is our Peace and our Path forever and ever. Today, He “fully reveals man to man himself and makes his supreme calling clear” (Vatican Council II, Gaudium et Spes 22).

The great sign the Gospel gives us today is that Jesus' tomb is empty. We have to look no more among the dead for He who is alive has risen. And his disciples also realize his tomb is empty. They will see him risen later on; experiencing him alive in a wonderful meeting in faith. An empty tomb and apparitions will be the great signs for the believer's faith. The Gospel says: “Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed” (Jn 20:8). Through his faith he realizes that the emptiness, the burial cloths, and the cloth that had covered his head rolled up in a separate place, were all signs that God had been there, signs of the new life. Love can see signs where others cannot, and small signs are enough. “The other disciple whom Jesus loved” (Jn 20:2) was led by the love he had received from Christ.

The disciples “saw and believed”; this must also be our aim. Let us renew our paschal faith; that Christ be our Lord in everything we do. Let his Life revitalize ours and let us renew the grace of the baptism we have received; let us become his apostles and disciples; let us be guided by love and announce to all our happiness to believe in Christ; let us be hopeful witnesses of his Resurrection.
