The Great 'Amen'

Catholics say the word "Amen" (or "Ah-men") a lot. We say it at the end of prayers, often after we make the sign of the cross, and when we receive communion. In the mass, there is one 'Amen' that we call the Great Amen. This is usually sung together by the congregation at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer. Amen is one of just two Hebrew words that we still use in the Mass. (The other being 'Alleluia.') The word has a number of different meanings. Jesus often said, "Amen, amen, I say to you..." In this case, it means "truly." When we receive the Body of Christ, we say "Amen" to mean "I believe." And in the Great Amen, it takes on the added meaning of "Yes!"

Parish News

Fr. Piña will be on vacation from September the 11-24, our visiting priest for the September 20 will be Fr. Paul Keys. Please pray for Fr. Piña's safe return to us.

Main Reasons to Attend CCD :

.Sacramental Preparation: Classes teach children what they need to know before receiving sacraments like Reconciliation (Confession), Holy Communion, and Confirmation.

Religious Education: Students learn prayers, Bible stories, and church teachings. This is very helpful for Catholic children who go to public schools instead of Catholic schools.

Spiritual Growth: Regular classes help children build a personal relationship with God and grow a lifelong foundation in their faith.

Community: Children meet other kids from their local church parish and share a common spiritual journey. [1]

"If my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive?"

very specific topic that remains in the hearts of many people: he asks about the limit of forgiveness. The answer is that there is no such limit: "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times" (Mt 18:22). To explain this reality, Jesus uses a parable. The king's question centers the theme of the parable: "Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?" (Mt 18:33).

Forgiveness is a gift, a grace that comes from the love and mercy of God. For Jesus, forgiveness has no limits, as long as the repentance is sincere and truthful. But it demands opening the heart to conversion, that is, acting towards others according to God's criteria.
