La Pascua del Señor

La Pascua del Señor, o Domingo de Resurrección, es la celebración cristiana más importante, conmemorando la resurrección de Jesucristo al tercer día de su crucifixión. La Pascua es el Misterio más grande de nuestra fe. Cristo ha resucitado y la Muerte quedó vencida porque su Resurrección la mató. San Agustín nos dice: - "Mediante su Pasión, Cristo pasó de la muerte a la vida. La Pascua es el paso del Señor"Ya dejamos atrás los días de Pasión y muerte. Esta es la gran verdad que llena de contenido nuestra fe. Jesús, que murió en la cruz, ha resucitado, ha triunfado de la muerte, del poder de las tinieblas, del dolor y de la angustia.

La Divina Misericordia

CORONILLA DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA ORIGEN
La Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia es una devoción reciente en la Iglesia católica fundada en las revelaciones particulares que recibió santa Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), religiosa polaca, sobre la Misericordia de Dios. La Coronilla consiste en un conjunto de oraciones, comúnmente rezadas con ayuda de un rosario, pero puede hacerse fácilmente sin él por su simplicidad.

PROMESA DE LA CORONILLA DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA Santa Faustina Kowalska, conocida como "Apóstol de la Misericordia", escribió en su diario unas promesas de Jesús en relación a la coronilla. Jesús le dijo que a quien la rezase, la misericordia le protegería en la vida y se le otorgaría inmensas gracias; y que fuera recomendada como última tabla de salvación. Algunas frases sacadas del Diario de santa Faustina:

Divine Mercy Sunday

April 12, 2026

Pope St. John Paul II passed away on the Vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday, April 2, 2005. I was present in St. Peter's Square, with fellow seminarians and many others from around the world, to pray the rosary for the Holy Father. As we concluded our prayers, Cardinal Angelo Sodano, who later ordained me a priest in Rome, entered the plaza and announced that Pope John Paul had returned to the House of the Father.

In the Jubilee Year 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina Kowalska and established Divine Mercy Sunday, the Second Sunday of Easter, as a feast day for the universal Church. He emphasized that nothing is more essential for humanity than divine mercy. But what does this divine mercy truly mean?

Divine mercy centers on God's immense love for us and the boundless compassion that flows from it. God alone expresses love, compassion, and forgiveness to their fullest extent. This is why we affirm that God is love; His merciful love is His greatest attribute. God's mercy is infinite and everlasting, transcending time and space.

The Gospel of Luke is often referred to as the "gospel of mercy," showcasing a progression of love and mercy through three powerful parables found in Luke 15: the lost sheep, the lost coin, and the prodigal son.

God not only forgives us but also seeks to restore everything to us. The Catholic Church offers the immense treasure of God's mercy through the Sacrament of Confession.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (nos. 1420-1498) describes confession as a personal encounter with God, where the penitent confesses sins to a priest acting in the person of Christ. This sacrament is vital for spiritual growth and deepening one's relationship with God, preparing the soul to receive the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our merciful Savior in the Eucharist. Divine mercy is a profound manifestation of God's love, inviting us to experience His compassion through the sacraments, especially confession and the Eucharist. As we approach Divine Mercy Sunday, let us embrace this extraordinary gift of God's mercy.
