May the Month of Mary

The Catholic Church dedicates the entire month of May to the Blessed Virgin Mary, mother of God and spiritual mother of all. In the plan of salvation, the Blessed Virgin Mary holds a special place.

By virtue of her role to be the mother of the Son of God by divine election, she was conceived immaculately — i.e., without the stain of original sin — and by fidelity to her son has been crowned queen of heaven and earth. Everything Mary said and did leads to Christ.

Mary knew and loved Jesus like no one else on earth — and she loves each of her children, human beings, with similar affection and tenderness.

Domingo de Pentecostés

Hoy, en el día de Pentecostés se realiza el cumplimiento de la promesa que Cristo había hecho a los Apóstoles. En la tarde del día de Pascua sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: «Recibid el Espíritu Santo» (Jn 20,22). La venida del Espíritu Santo el día de Pentecostés renueva y lleva a plenitud ese don de un modo solemne y con manifestaciones externas. Así culmina el misterio pascual.

El Espíritu que Jesús comunica, crea en el discípulo una nueva condición humana, y produce unidad. Cuando el orgullo del hombre le lleva a desafiar a Dios construyendo la torre de Babel, Dios confunde sus lenguas y no pueden entenderse. En Pentecostés sucede lo contrario: por gracia del Espíritu Santo, los Apóstoles son entendidos por gentes de las más diversas procedencias y lenguas.

Pentecost Sunday

May 24

Pentecost Sunday is one of the most important feasts in the Catholic liturgical calendar and, frankly, one of the most misunderstood. It's often called the "Birthday of the Church" because it marks the start of the Church's mission, commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the Virgin Mary fifty days after the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Mary was there at the first Pentecost, praying in the midst of the disciples. She remains our model of openness to the Spirit — her entire life a fiat, a "yes", to whatever God asked of her. As we approach this feast, we invite you to pray with her, asking the Holy Spirit to renew in each of us the grace of our Baptism and Confirmation.

The word Pentecost comes from the Greek pentekostē, meaning "fiftieth day." For Christians, Pentecost marks something great: the giving of the Holy Spirit, the fulfillment of Christ's promise to send an Advocate who would guide, strengthen, and sanctify His followers until the end of time.

What Is Pentecost?

Pentecost is a Catholic feast day that marks the moment when the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary, empowering them to proclaim the Gospel to the world.

This is the beginning of the Church's public mission and the fulfillment of Jesus' promise to send the Holy Spirit.

When Is Pentecost?

Pentecost is celebrated fifty days after Easter Sunday and always falls on a Sunday. The date changes each year because it depends on the date of Easter.

Pentecost is the answer to that promise. The Holy Spirit is not simply a force or a feeling — He is the Third Person of the Holy Trinity, the Lord and Giver of Life. His coming at Pentecost was the divine gift that made the Church possible: giving the Apostles courage to preach, wisdom to teach, and grace to sanctify souls through the sacraments.

Pentecost is not just history. The Holy Spirit is alive and at work in the Church today in every Mass, every sacrament, every act of charity done in Christ's name.
