Saint of the Week

Saint Peter Damian Bishop doctor of the Church
1007–1072

Prayer: Saint Peter Damian, you were drawn to a life of solitude, prayer, and penance. From that hidden life as a monk, God sent you forth to reform His wounded Church. You answered the call with courage and zeal. Please pray for me, that I will never shy away from reforming my own life and that I will always answer the call to be an instrument of that reformation wherever I am sent. Saint Peter Damian, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.

Pope Leon XIV prayer intention for February

For children with incurable diseases

Let us pray that children suffering from incurable diseases and their families receive the necessary medical care and support, never losing strength and hope.

El Evangelio de este Domingo

Hoy celebramos al Señor como quien no ha venido a abolir la ley, sino a darle un cumplimiento perfecto. No nos cansaremos de admirarlo, pues si bien es verdad que ninguno de nosotros puede cumplir a fondo la voluntad de Dios, entre nosotros hay uno, Jesús, que sí lo ha hecho. Su vida fue un sí al Padre por amor. Cada eucaristía vivimos esa ofrenda generosa de Cristo, realizada por amor a su Padre y por nosotros. Contemplando a Jesús en esta celebración descubrimos que la verdadera libertad se encuentra en una comprensión cabal de la voluntad de Dios y en su obediencia motivada por el amor. El modo de vivir de los cristianos.

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 15

Today, Jesus tells us, “Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets” (Mt 5:17). What is the Law? What are the Prophets? By the Law and the Prophets, we understand two different groups of books of the Old Testament. The Law refers to the writings attributed to Moses; the Prophets, as the name itself indicates, are the writings of the prophets and the wisdom books.

In today's Gospel, Jesus refers to what we consider the summary of the moral code of the Old Testament: the commandments of the Law of God. According to the mind of Jesus, the Law does not consist of merely external principles. No. The Law is not an imposition coming from outside. Quite the opposite. In truth, the Law of God corresponds to the ideal of perfection that is rooted in the heart of every human being. This is why the one who keeps the commandments not only feels fulfilled in his human aspirations, but also attains the perfection of Christianity, or, in the words of Jesus, attains the perfection of the Kingdom of God: “Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven” (Mt 5:19).

The example of Jesus invites us to that perfection of Christian life which carries out in actions what is proclaimed in words.
