Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A 2026

John bore witness: 'I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove'.

In the Gospel, John the Baptist recognizes in Jesus the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. John bears witness that Jesus truly is the Son of God. The Lamb recalls the image of the Victorious Lamb in the Book of the Apocalypse who at the end of time will definitively destroy evil and sin.

Saint of the Week

Memorial of St. Agnes (c. 304)

St. Agnes, like St. Cecilia, is to be numbered among the most famous martyrs of Rome. When the Diocletian persecution was at its height, and when priests as well as laymen were apostatizing from the faith, Agnes, a girl of twelve, freely chose to die for Christ. When she was commanded to offer incense to false gods, she raised her hand to Christ and made the Sign of the Cross. When the heathens threatened to bind her hand and foot, she herself hastened to the place of torture as a bride to her wedding feast. The name of "Agnes" means "lamb-life," and hence the lamb is the symbol of the modesty and innocence of the virgin-martyr.

Pope Leon XIV prayer intention for January

Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

El Cordero De Dios

La presentación de Cristo de este domingo se realiza con un gran título cristológico, muy importante, que quizá convendría explicitar hoy, dado que siempre está presente en nuestras celebraciones. Juan se refiere al Señor como «Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo». En la celebración se trata de una aclamación que acompaña el gesto de la fracción del pan, de enorme importancia, al punto que este gesto dio origen a la primera denominación de la santa Misa. Y le agrega: «ten piedad de nosotros», dos veces; la última: «danos la paz», que no es un simple bienestar, sino el cumplimiento pleno de todas las promesas divinas.

Los estudios bíblicos explican que Juan Bautista emplea este título aludiendo al sacrificio perpetuo que se realizaba en el templo de Jerusalén dos veces al día: por la mañana y por la tarde. Este ritual se realizaba sacrificando un cordero y su objetivo era la purificación de los pecados del pueblo.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

On this Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Gospel presents to us the scene of the meeting between Jesus and John the Baptist at the Jordan River. The narrator is the eye witness, John the Evangelist, who, before he was a disciple of Jesus was a disciple of the Baptist, together with his brother James, with Simon and Andrew, all are from Galilee, all are fisherman. So, John the Baptist sees Jesus, who steps forward from the crowd and, inspired from above, sees in Jesus the one sent by God. For this reason he points him out with theses words: “Behold the lamb of God, he who takes away the sin of the world!” (John 1:29).

The word that is translated with “take away” literally means “to relieve,” “to take upon oneself.” Jesus has come into the world with a precise mission: to free it from the slavery of sin, taking humanity’s faults upon himself. In what way? By loving. There is no other way to defeat evil and sin than with the love that moves one to give the gift of his life for others. In the testimony of John the Baptist, Jesus is given the traits of the Servant of the Lord, who “has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows” (Isaiah 53:4), to the point of dying on the cross. He is the true Passover lamb, who immerses himself in the river of our sin, to purify us.
