Saint of the Week

Saint Turibius of Mogrovejo (16 November 1538 – 23 March 1606)

Together with Rose of Lima, Saint Turibius of Mogrovejo is the first known saint of the New World, serving the Lord in Peru, South America, for 26 years. Saint Turibius of Mogrovejo confessed every morning to his chaplain, and celebrated Mass with intense fervor. Among those to whom he gave the Sacrament of Confirmation was the future Saint Rose of Lima, and possibly the future Saint Martin de Porres. After 1590, he had the help of another great missionary, Francis Solanus, now also a saint.

The Bible

The Bible is all around us. People hear Scripture readings in church. We have Good Samaritan (Luke 10) laws, welcome home the Prodigal Son (Luke15), and look for the Promised Land. (Exodus 3, Hebrews 11). Some biblical passages have become popular maxims, such as "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you (Matthew 7:12)". "Thou shall not steal (Exodus 20:15), and "love thy neighbor" (Matthew 22:39) .

Fourth Week of Lent

March 22, 20

Our Lord declares: "I am the resurrection and the life." This, this is what he wills. This is what he came for. "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full" (John 10:10). The Father in his goodness will not let death have the final word. He sends our Lord Jesus to awaken us from the sleep of death: "Lazarus, come out!" The Lord calls his beloved friend from the tomb by his name — Lazarus. He calls us to himself.

In these last remaining days of Lent, come to Confession where Christ calls you by name, wanting to clothe you again with the white garment of your baptism. In the confessional, weep for your sins with him. Wipe away your tears and his when you resolve, "by the help of his grace, to do penance, to amend your life, and to avoid the near occasions of sin." Ask for this same grace again when you meet him today in Holy Communion. Stay close to him as he ascends Calvary on Good Friday. Keep watch at his tomb on Holy Saturday. Then, rejoice with him when he brings you to the joy of Easter, and ultimately, leads you to the glory of eternal life — where he "will wipe every tear from our eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, no more crying or pain" (Cf., Rev. 21:4).
