The word Amen

The word Amen is one of a small number of Hebrew words which have been imported unchanged into the liturgy of the Church, propter sanctiorem as St. Augustine expresses it, in virtue of an exceptionally sacred example. "So frequent was this Hebrew in the mouth of Our Saviour", observes the Catechism of the Council of Trent, "that it pleased the Holy Ghost to have it perpetuated in the Church of God". In point of fact St. Matthew attributes it to Our Lord twenty-eight times, and St. John in its doubled form twenty-six times. As regards the etymology, Amen is a derivative from the Hebrew verb aman "to strengthen" or "Confirm".

21 Domingo del tiempo ordinario

Solamente desde la fe y la comunión con Jesucristo venceremos el poder del mal. El Reino de la muerte se manifiesta entre nosotros, nos causa sufrimiento y nos plantea muchos interrogantes; sin embargo, también el Reino de Dios se hace presente en medio de nosotros y desvela la esperanza; y la Iglesia, sacramento del Reino de Dios en el mundo, cimentada en la roca de la fe confesada por Pedro, nos hace nacer a la esperanza y a la alegría de la vida eterna
