Saint of the Week

Saint Cyril, monk and Methodius, Bishop

Tradition tells us that the brothers Methodius and Constantine (he did not take the name Cyril until just before his death) grew up in Thessalonica as sons of a prominent Christian family. Because many Slavic people settled in Thessalonica, it is assumed Constantine and Methodius were familiar with the Slavic language. Methodius, the older of the two brothers, became an important civil official who would have needed to know Slavonic. He grew tired of worldly affairs and retired to a monastery. Constantine became a scholar and a professor known as "the Philosopher" in Constantinople. Ukraine.

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time – February 8

What I think today's Gospel is getting at is that many of your acts of love ought to be seen and known by others. That is what is meant by not hiding a lamp under a bushel basket. The verse I mentioned earlier about Jesus exhorting us that we are not supposed to be like the Pharisee who blows the trumpet, and draw attention to all his charitable deeds, does not contradict what we hear in today's Gospel when we understand it properly. Jesus is not saying that none of your good deeds and prayers should be known; what he's getting at is the proper intention that should be behind such actions. The Pharisee does good deeds and makes them known in order for the world to think well of him. This is wrong: we should not do good deeds to be esteemed by the world, but we should do them for love of God and not for our own vainglory. And if we truly do good deeds for love of God and not our own vainglory, then their light should not be hidden under a bushel basket. What is important is the intention because you could do a "good act" in secret for the wrong reasons. You could do such an act to feel superior over others, and not for love of God.

El Evangelio de hoy

Hoy, el Evangelio nos hace una gran llamada a ser testimonios de Cristo. Y nos invita a serlo de dos maneras, aparentemente, contradictorias: como la sal y como la luz.

La sal no se ve, pero se nota; se hace gustar, paladar. Hay muchas personas que "no se dejan ver", porque son como "hormiguitas" que no paran de trabajar y de hacer el bien. A su lado se puede paladar la paz, la serenidad, la alegría. Tienen —como está de moda decir hoy— "buenas radiaciones"
