The mass readings for Sunday, October 11, 2026 focus on God's generous invitation to His heavenly banquet and the response it requires:

The prophet Isaiah pictures a rich, joyful feast prepared by God for all peoples on Mount Zion, where death will be destroyed forever and tears will be wiped away from every face.

The classic "Lord is my shepherd" psalm, celebrating God's comforting guidance through dark valleys and the promise of dwelling in the house of the Lord forever.

Saint Paul shares that he has learned the secret of being content in any situation—whether well-fed or hungry, in abundance or need—because Christ gives him strength, and God will supply every need.

Jesus tells the parable of the king who throws a wedding banquet for his son. When the original invited guests refuse to come, the king invites everyone from the streets—both good and bad. However, one guest is cast out for not wearing a proper wedding garment, illustrating that accepting God's call requires a sincere, transformed life, as "many are invited, but few are chosen".

Main Reasons to Attend CCE :

Sacramental Preparation: Classes teach children what they need to know before receiving sacraments like Reconciliation (Confession), Holy Communion, and Confirmation.

Religious Education: Students learn prayers, Bible stories, and church teachings. This is very helpful for Catholic children who go to public schools instead of Catholic schools.

Spiritual Growth: Regular classes help children build a personal relationship with God and grow a lifelong foundation in their faith.

Community: Children meet other kids from their local church parish and share a common spiritual journey.

Prayer for Reflection for Sunday October 11, 2026

Lord God, on Your holy mountain You have spread a feast that destroys death and wipes away every tear, and in Christ You invite us to it freely. Forgive us for the regrets we keep sending, not out of hatred but out of busyness, always choosing the farm and the shop and the next task over You. Make us hungry enough to come running. Clothe us, who arrive unworthy off the road, in the new life of Your Son, and do not let us refuse to be changed by the grace that welcomed us. Teach us, like Paul, that You supply our every need, and that our deepest hunger is only ever filled by You. Amen.
