The House of Bread

But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days. And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God. And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth; and he shall be the one of peace. (Micah 5:2-5) The name Bethlehem means "House of Bread." Jesus not only humbled himself to be born as a baby in Bethlehem, but was placed in a feeding trough as his manger. Even from his birth, he occupies a space that is meant for food because he is the bread that will feed the world with the Eucharist.

Pope Leo XIV's Monthly Prayer Intention

April 2026: For priests in crisis. Let us pray for priests going through moments of crisis in their vocation, that they may find the accompaniment they need and that communities may support them with understanding and prayer.

PROMESA DE LA CORONILLA DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA Santa Faustina Kowalska, conocida como "Apóstol de la Misericordia", escribió en su diario unas promesas de Jesús en relación a la coronilla. Jesús le dijo que a quien la rezase, la misericordia le protegería en la vida y se le otorgaría inmensas gracias; y que fuera recomendada como última tabla de salvación. Algunas frases sacadas del Diario de santa Faustina:

Third Sunday of Easter

April 19, 2026

The Gospel Reading for this Third Sunday of Easter recalls the unexpected encounter between the Risen Jesus Christ and two of his disciples. When Jesus joins them on the road, they do not recognize Him. They take Him for a stranger who is unacquainted with all that has happened in the last few days.

Jesus Christ chides them for their lack of belief and understanding. Then patiently He explains all that has happened and shows them how recent events have fulfilled the Scriptures.

The two disciples then invite Him to join them for dinner and it is within the context of the dinner that they recognize Jesus.

St. Luke, recalling the scene, records the precise words which Jesus used at the Last Supper.

The two disciples now know that their guest is truly Jesus of Nazareth. This, then, is one of the ways that we, too, recognize Jesus Christ: His Real Presence, His Body and Blood, His Soul and Divinity, in the Holy Eucharist.

This gospel Reading from Saint Luke invites us to reflect, once again, on the belief of the Church in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the consecrated Host.

We, too, you and I, see the Risen Lord. We recognize Him when the Priest says the words of Consecration: "This is my Body . . . This is my Blood."

May we take the opportunity during this Easter Season to thank the Risen Jesus Christ for this inestimable Gift.

Amen.

Las lecturas de este domingo nos traen en primer lugar un discurso de Pedro, tomado del libro de los Hechos. Y el evangelio, por última vez en este ciclo, la aparición de Cristo resucitado a los discípulos. La lectura de la Primera Carta de san Pedro es de naturaleza bautismal, por lo que se inserta muy adecuadamente en este tiempo. Con todo, el episodio narrado por Lucas suele siempre captar toda nuestra atención. El texto, magistralmente compuesto por Lucas, es un eco de las celebraciones eucarísticas de la primera generación cristiana. Cristo vive, es el mismo de siempre, pero no es igual al de antes. Si las heridas de la vida y del alma dejan huella en nuestro cuerpo, cuánto más las vividas por el Señor, que murió en la cruz, bajó a los infiernos y luego resucitó.
